

SDM remains Intact

Intact Integrated Services has unveiled a new service delivery management offering designed to help resellers get more out of services engagements. The package aims to help VARs manage service-level agreement performance and reduce project risk.